KEY.

The name of the testator is in Bold Type; those persons bearing relationship to the testator, if stated in the will, are in bold type also. All others are in Roman Type. The county of testator follows the name in the same line if it is given in the will itself, and if none appears in the abstract the inference must be drawn that it is lacking in the will.

The dates of drawing and of the probate of each are placed one above the other, opposite the name of testator; that of probate under that of drawing. If either date does not appear in the Calendar a line of dashes is placed in the respective place to indicate the fact that it is lacking in the will as recorded, and if, as is the case in a few instances, neither date of drawing nor that of probate appears in the will, a double line of dashes is substituted.

The numbers at the foot of each abstract give the number of the book and the page from which it has been taken. The book numbers and not the old liber numbers are used, this being in accordance with the system usual with genealogists in making notes from these books.

It will be seen that in many instances overseers or trustees are named by testators. The custom now being obsolete it is best explained by a quotation from one of the wills where a testator, after designating several friends for the office, adds: "who shall assist the executrix in the care of the estate that neither she nor the children be wronged!"

Nunc. placed after a name indicates that the will was a nuncupative one.

Young. is used in the calendar as the abbreviation of youngest.

Test., the abbreviation of testis and testes, has been adopted in accordance with the custom of the times rather that the more modern term of witnesses. The other abbreviations and terms are so simple that explanation of them seems needless, since they do not differ from those in ordinary use.

INTRODUCTION.

In presenting this, the second volume of THE MARYLAND CALENDAR OF WILLS, an introduction seems superfluous as the scheme and purposes of the work were fully set forth in the first volume. It does seem well, however, to thank the subscribers for their patient waiting. The delay in the publication of Vol. II is due in part to the fact that Vol. I had to be reprinted because all of the undelivered copies of the book were destroyed in the Baltimore fire. Also, I would like to express my sincere thanks to Hon. E. Stanley Toadvin, the Commissioner of the Land Office at Annapolis, Mr. James Walter Thomas of Cumberland, and the Hon. John Gill, Jr., of Baltimore, and other friends of the work through whose efforts a continuation of this publication was made possible by means of a bill providing for a State subscription to the work which was passed by the last General Assembly of Maryland.

Volume III is already in press and is expected to be ready for distribution within the next year.

Boston, Mass., December 19, 1905.

MARYLAND CALENDAR OF WILLS

Volume 2
1685-1702

Jane Baldwin Cotton

In 1904, Jane Baldwin published the first volume of The Maryland Calendar of Wills series. The purpose of her work, as expressed in her introduction, was to meet the need of students of history and genealogists. She expected that her compilations would also assist in tracing titles to properties. Embracing the same goal, F. Edward Wright has continued the series.

Following the Baldwin format, abstracts include the date of the drawing of the will and the date of probate. Abstracts give the names of all persons mentioned in the original will, including witnesses, names of tracts, acreage and situation, or means by which a property came into the possession of the testator. A full name index adds to the value of this work.
